

FAI puts Challenger 604 in dedicated Air Ambulance Service

German air ambulance operator FAI rent-a-jet AG (dba Flight-Ambulance-International) has announced that with immediate effect FAI is offering a Challenger 604 in dedicated air ambulance service. The aircraft (HB-JRN) is operated by FAI's Swiss subsidiary Nomad Aviation, staffed with FAI inhouse med-team and available for worldwide medevac-missions.

"FAI now is one of only a few medevac-operators worldwide, covering the full range of cabin sizes, from the small cabin Learjet 35A, over the medium sized Learjet 60 up to the wide body Challenger 604, undertaking FAI's leadership in the air ambulance market", FAI's chairman Siegfried Axtmann stated in an interview.
